Hi Randi,

Thank you for following up with this note! Yes, I am comfortable being included as a consultant on QED's website. I'm providing a brief bio below (feel free to edit...I tried to pick three areas of expertise that I thought might be most relevant to our clients but am happy to brainstorm other areas) and attaching my headshot as well.

Trained as a learning scientist with an emphasis in human development across the lifespan, Abby has conducted evaluations on multiple NSF-funded projects with Quality Evaluation Designs since 2022. She brings expertise in mixed- and multi-method designs, program evaluation, and lifelong learning.

I'm available for a 15-minute check in tomorrow (6/09) between 9:00-10:15 am or 11:15 am-1:00 pm. Feel free to send an invite with whatever time works best for you!

Thank you,
Abby

Hi Abby,

I wanted to make sure you were comfortable being featured as a consultant on QED's website. If so, could you provide a brief (2-3 sentence) bio about yourself and your work with QED? If you are comfortable with it, I would also love to include your professional headshot.

I also wanted to see if you had some time next week for a quick ~15-minute check-in. As we move through this transition, I'd love to connect to discuss ongoing projects and talk through your anticipated hours with QED, both what you're currently expecting and what you need going forward. I want to make sure we're on the same page!

Here are some of the times that I have available the week of (6/8 - 6/12):

- * Monday - 12:00 PM - 2:00 PM
- * Tuesday - 9:00 AM - 2:00 PM
- * Wednesday - before 12:00 PM

Let me know if any of these times work for you!

Thank you!

Randi
